Music & Drama Education Expo 2017

9 & 10 February

Thank you for taking an interest in the Music & Drama Education Expo 2017, the largest conference and exhibition for music and drama teachers.

Whether you've been involved in previous years, or you're new to the show, this media pack should tell you everything you need to know about the 2017 event.

The premise behind the show is simple: we offer our visitors high-quality conference sessions and access to a vast trade exhibition for free.

By doing this, we're able to provide you with direct, face-to-face access to around 3,000 music and drama teachers from across the UK, as well as further afield (we had over 40 countries represented in 2016).

Thanks to the success of previous years and the inclusion of drama for the first time in 2016, the Music & Drama Education Expo continues to go from strength to strength.

Each year we take on comments from both exhibitors and delegates and endeavour to make the show the best place for teachers of performing arts, music and drama to learn new skills, find new products and be ahead of the curve with regard to any major developments in their specialisms.

If you have any questions regarding the show, please get in touch with me or another member of the Expo Sales Team on 020 7333 1719.

I look forward to working with you on the 2017 show
